

Mr. Golsborough proposed to amend that motion, by striking out "Tuesday," and inserting "Wednesday."

And on the question "will the House agree to this amendment?"

It was resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put on the motion of Mr. Burchenall as amended,

And resolved in the affirmative.

The bill reported by Mr. Ely, from the Committee on Insolvency, on the 20th instant, entitled, a further supplement to the act, entitled, an act relating to insolvent debtors in the city and county of Baltimore, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and sixteen, chapter two hundred and twenty-one, was taken up for consideration, and, in the progress of the second reading thereof,

On motion by Mr. Ely, the first section was amended, by inserting after the words "as commissioners of insolvent debtors for the city and county of Baltimore," the following: "one of whom, at least, shall be a resident of the said county, out of the limits of the said city."

After some discussion,

On motion by Mr. Ely, the said bill, as amended, was ordered to lie on the table, and be printed.

The bill reported by Mr. Dorsey, on the 4th instant, entitled, an act to confirm and make valid a deed therein mentioned, was taken up for consideration. The amendment reported on the 20th instant, from the Committee on Grievances and Courts of Justice to which the said bill had been referred, was read the second time, and concurred in.

The bill, as amended, was then read the second time and passed.

The bill reported by Mr. Goldsborough, on the 21st instant, entitled, an act to alter and repeal the act, entitled, an act to alter the present mode of appointing the Justices of the Levy Court of Dorchester county, so that each election district may have one member, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-three, was taken up for consideration, read the second time accordingly, and passed.

On motion by Mr. Swan,

The House then adjourned until Monday morning, ten o'clock.
